

SAP MaxAttention and SAP ActiveAttention – End-to-End Hybrid Operations – Data Volume Management

Service component: Data Volume Planning

- ▶ The purpose of this service component is the evaluation and definition of guidelines for the implementation or improvement of a data volume management strategy. This results into a detailed roadmap which contains prioritized data volume management activities.

Business needs

- Transparency on data volumes and potential savings of the current database
- Lean database before transition to SAP S/4HANA
- Prepare for efficient data volume management on SAP S/4HANA
- Adjustment of data volume management activities to the new simplified data model
- Know-how on new SAP S/4HANA specific data management technology

Delivery approach and scope

- Remote analysis of the current database to determine potential savings
- Onsite workshop to discuss
  - Recommendations
  - Infrastructure and system landscape
  - Scope
  - Knowledge transfer

Value and benefits

- A roadmap focusing on the right things to do before SAP S/4HANA transition
- Save time and cost by optimal planning of the implementation of the data volume management strategy
- Smooth SAP S/4HANA transition / migration
- Reduction in total cost of ownership

Related SAP Max Attention Support services

- Data Volume Management (9500320)
- Data Volume Scoping (9502331)
- Data Volume Design (9504133)
- Implementation support for Data Volume Management (9504701)

Related SAP Enterprise Support services

- Continuous quality check for data volume management